

Robbie Smith
Florida Licensed Mental Health Counselor

Robbie W. Smith, is a Florida Licensed Mental Health Counselor, she holds an Honorary Doctor of Ministry degree and two earned Master's, one in Christian Counseling from Southeastern Theological Seminary and a second in Counseling Psychology from the University of North Florida. Robbie has served multiple professional organizations in an official capacity. Robbie with her husband Doug, co-founded Safe Harbor Boys Home in 1983, and its high school program, Safe Harbor Maritime Academy, in 1999. Safe Harbor was founded to serve hurting, orphaned, neglected, and fatherless teenage boys.

The facility has operated for 27 years on private charitable contributions and does not rely on tax dollars for support. Robbie and Doug continue to serve the organization in a volunteer capacity ensuring its core mission of helping boys become “men of character, integrity, and vision” continues. Robbie, along with her husband and Safe Harbor has been profiled nationally in People Magazine, on CBS This Morning, NBC News Today, CNN, and CBN. Robbie was the cover article in the University of North Florida Alumni Journal in September 1996.